

THE HENDON LEAGUE

General Notes

1. All Leagues will be run in Divisions of seven, where practicable, and will be shot over 7 three-weekly rounds. All Leagues will be run provided there are sufficient entries to make a division.
2. Averages to be calculated from the best five of the first 6 Rounds of the previous season, or from certified practice cards.
3. All stickers are to be affixed by a responsible Officer of the Club in accordance with the instructions. All Rounds may be shot on receipt of stickers.
- 3a. No replacement stickers will be issued after round 1 results have published.
4. Points will be awarded in descending score order, i.e. highest score will receive 7 points for divisions of 7, etc. No score - No points!
5. All cards to be scored at the Club by TWO responsible Officers of the Club, both of whom have to sign the score sheet. The scores are to be entered on the targets.
6. The Score sheet must be returned to the League Organiser by the due date; otherwise "No Scores Received" will be recorded unless the League Organiser has being informed beforehand.
7. All shot cards are to be retained until the final results have been issued.
8. Random checking of scored cards will be carried out. Cards, when requested, should be received by the League Organiser by the required date, otherwise the scores will be disallowed.
9. All cards for a particular round must be shot on the same day.
10. Lightweight Sport Rifles to conform to NSRA Specification.
11. Gallery Rifles to conform to NRA Specification.
12. Sights:
 - a) Open Sights - "V" notch back sight and post foresight.
 - b) Metallic sights - either "Open" or simple diopter rear sight and post or ring foresights.
Red Dot and Optical Sights are not included.
 - c) Any Sights - "Open", "Metallic", Red Dot or Optical
13. Definition of the Standing Position - The shooter must stand free with both feet on the firing point surface without any other support. The rifle must be held with both hands and the shoulder, the cheek and the part of the chest next to the right shoulder. However the jacket or chest beyond the area of the right shoulder and right chest must not support the rifle. The left upper arm and elbow may be supported on the chest or the hip, there must not be any use of a palm rest

The use of a sling, palm rest, or any other specialised accessory is prohibited - NSRA Rule 8.9.
(NB - Where the rule refers to right handed shooters, the reverse of the rule applies to left-handed shooters)
14. In the event that gun scores differ significantly from submitted averages, we reserve the right to reclassify any competitor. The onus is on the Club Organiser to submit correct averages.
15. The organiser has the right to delete the oldest extension when there are more than 3 consecutive entries.
Please note rules and regulations have been revised and updated – Nov 2016

NSRA BENCHREST RULES AND REGULATIONS – CHANGES

Page 15 Insert Rule 5.2.5.

5.2.5 Benchrest Rifle

Targets will be scored using a 5.6 mm (.22 in) gauge regardless of the calibre of the rifle used to shoot the competition. The oversize gauge appropriate to the target and distance may be used as an alternative.

Page 36 (page 38 in subsequent reprints) Insert new Rule 8.16 to 8.16.7

8.16 BENCHREST RIFLE

8.16.1 Rifle. Any rifle complying with Rules 8.3.2, 8.3.3 or 8.3.4 may be used.

8.16.1.1 Rifles falling within Rule 8.3.3 do not need to comply with the requirements of 8.3.3.1 and 8.3.3.2.

8.16.1.2 Rifles fitted with magazines may only be loaded with one cartridge or pellet.

8.16.1.3 Rifles may be fitted with a fore-end raising block not exceeding 75 mm (3 in) in width as measured at 90 degrees to the line of the barrel.

8.16.2 Ammunition. Any ammunition complying with Rules 8.2.1 and 8.2.3.

8.16.3 Position.

8.16.3.1 The shooter must be seated at a bench or table.

8.16.3.2 The rifle may be supported by one rest at the fore-end only. A shooter may use a sling, as in prone shooting, instead of but not in addition to a rest.

8.16.3.3 When in the firing position, the rifle butt must be located in the shoulder and supported by the shooter's hands. The non-firing hand may be placed on the table and support the rear end of the rifle. The rear end of the rifle may not rest on or touch the bench, or any pad or other artificial support on the bench, when in the firing position, but may do so between shots and when re-loading.

8.16.4 Bench. The bench may be of any height to suit the shooter, The bench top may be shaped so as to form an extension to support the right elbow (or left elbow if left-handed), but must in no way control the elbow's position.

8.16.5 Rest.

8.16.5.1 The rest may be of any type of material, may be adjustable for height and may only support the fore-end of the rifle. It may not be fixed to the bench or the fore-end, but must be free to move in relation to both. It must not control the rifle in any way.

8.16.5.2 The area of the rest that supports the fore-end of the rifle:

8.16.5.2.1 must be flat in the horizontal plane;

8.16.5.2.2 must be made of a non-pliable material, such as metal or wood;

8.16.5.2.3 may have a thin, soft covering, such as cloth, carpet or leather, but the covering must be sufficiently thin that no support is given to either side of the fore-end.

8.16.5.3 The rest may have vertical extensions at its sides projecting upwards to prevent the rifle falling off the rest between shots and when re-loading, but the fore-end must be visibly clear of these extensions when the shooter is in the firing position.

8.16.5.4 A sandbag may be used to provide the height, but must have a piece of material conforming to 8.16.5.2 interposed between it and the fore-end. The sandbag may not provide any sideways support to the fore-end.

8.16.6 Seat. The seat or chair may be of any height or design and may be adjustable for height.

8.16.7 Shooting Distance. No part of the rifle receiver may be in front of the front marked edge of the firing point (Rule 1.10.2), which must be marked on the bench.

Please note rules and regulations have been revised and updated – Feb 2013
